December 22 1888:

At the beginning of 1893 George, Henrietta and their younger children went on what was intended to be with the same indomitable spirit which had characterised his whole life. Mr. Cox was in his 76th year, having been born on July 1, 1834, on his father's estate, Mulgoa, near Penrith. He was

Henry Wynne died in 1898 and in 1902 Marion Wynne remarried to Gregory Macalister Matthews, a son of sister of Robert and Helenus Scott, urbane gentleman graziers and amateur architects, of Glendon, Singleton. From the late 1830s until 1850 the Scott brothers owned Dalkeith Station at Cassilis, subsequently acquired by the Busby family. Rosa Scott, a daughter of Helenus Scott and thus a first cousin of David Scott Mitchell and Augusta Mitchell Merewether, was a prominent feminist in nineteenth century Sydney.
